RECEIPTS AND EXPENDITURES 2

FROM

THE SECRETARY OF THE TREASURY.

TRANSMITTING

Annual statement of the receipts and expenditures of the United States for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1861, as required by the standing order of the House of Representatives of December 30, 1791, and the act of August 26, 1842.

JANUARY 27, 1862.—Laid on the table, and ordered to be printed.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT, January 23, 1862.

Sig: I have the honor herewith to transmit statements prepared by the Register of the Treasury, with his letter transmitting them to this office, exhibiting an account of the receipts and expenditures of the United States for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1861, stated in pursuance of the standing order of the House of Representatives of December 30, 1791, and the act of August 26, 1842.

With great respect,

Department Li

S. P. CHASE, Secretary of the Treasury.

Hon. G. A. Grow,

Speaker of the House of Representatives.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT, Register's Office, January 17, 1862.

SIR: I have the honor to transmit the account of the receipts and expenditures of the United States for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1861, stated in pursuance of the standing order of the House of Representatives of December 30, 1791, and an act of August 26, 1842.

This account contains:

1. A general account of the receipts and expenditures of the fiscal year ending June 30, 1861. The pages in the margin of the credit side refer to the detailed expenditures under the specific heads of appropriation.

2. The expenditures and repayments under each head of appropriation, showing the aggregate amount paid to, and repaid by, each individual during the year.

3. Statements of the appropriations made for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1861, including the balances on July 1, 1860; the payments during the year; the several sums carried to the surplus fund; and the balances unexpended at the end of the year.

4. Statements of the balances due by, and in favor of, supervisors, collectors, and others, of the late direct tax and internal revenue.

5. Statements of the operations of the several land offices in the fiscal year ending June 30, 1861.

6. Statements in relation to the customs.

I am, very respectfully, your obedient servant,

L. E. CHITTENDEN,
Register.

Hon. S. P. Chase, Secretary of the Treasury.

THE RECEIPTS AND EXPENDITURES

OF

THE UNITED STATES

FOR THE FISCAL YEAR ENDING JUNE 30, 1861.

Stated in pursuance of the following standing order of the House of Representatives of the United States, passed December 30, 1791, viz:

"Resolved, That it shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Treasury to lay before the House of Representatives, on the fourth Monday of October in each year, if Congress shall then be in session, or, if not then in session, within the first week of the session next following the said fourth Monday in October, an accurate statement and account of the receipts and expenditures of all the public moneys down to the last day, inclusively, of the month of December immediately preceding the said fourth Monday in October, distinguishing the amount of the receipts of each State or district, and from each officer therein; in which statement shall also be distinguished the expenditures which shall fall under each head of appropriation; and shall be shown the sums, if any, which remain unexpended and to be accounted for in the next statement of each and every of such appropriations;"

And of "An act to define and establish the fiscal year of the treasury of the United States," passed August 26, 1842.

To balance in the treasury June 30, 1860...... 32, 979, 530 78
